

I Wanna Be A Cowboy by Marshall Harris

Fort Works Art, in conjunction with the Fort Worth Community Arts Center, presents I Wanna Be A Cowboy, an exhibition showcasing original graphite on mylar drawings and limited edition prints by Fort Worth artist Marshall Harris. Coinciding with the annual Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo this exhibition includes several of Harris' original Saddle drawings, as well as his renowned 'The Hand That Feeds' drawing, on loan from collectors. This will be the first time these incredible original works will be on view to the public in Fort Worth. Keeping in the western theme, Harris will also have new additions to his colorful Psychedelic Saddle series that are available in various sizes.
